JUNE 16th WORKSHOP:

The "Cotton Theory Quilting Method" by certified instructor Alice Bricki. You will learn to quilt as you go to make a placemat size all the way up to a king size quilt on your very own sewing machine.

Alice will have 3 samples available for you to pick out which project you would like to make. Class cost is $35 plus kit cost. Watch for the samples on display at the next meeting and register for the kit you would like to make. Please sign up soon as we need a minimum of 15 students to enable Alice to make the trip.

Look for the samples-They are out of this world beautiful.

LECTURE for June Meeting:

At our evening meeting Alice will lecture and share her trunk show.

Fire up and support your guild workshops by signing up for a class.

Hospitality

This evening the snacks and beverages are supplied by your guild board members as a thank-you for your encouragement and support throughout their term.

The information on the Annual May challenge is:

Starless Red White and Blue Challenge. Your finished piece may use as many red, white, and blue fabrics as you would like. The challenge is that the finished quilt must be "Starless", which means no stars in the design or in the fabric. The maximum perimeter of the quilt is 160" and it is due at the May annual meeting.

There is a registration sheet below for the June class. Please use this to sign up for the class.

Quilts to Share

How exciting! Quilts To Share was nominated by Kathy Goehrig from Cedar Valley Hospice to receive a volunteer award from Governor Culver. The ceremony is on Tuesday, June 17, at 1:00 pm at Gallergher Bluedorn Performing Arts Center.

All who have helped in anyway are invited to attend the ceremony. Janet O'Neil and Donna Hansen will represent the group. There is a special section for members of groups so when Quilts To Share is called up to receive the award all who are there are encouraged to go forward.

Keepsake Quilters Guild should be proud to receive this award. We hope many of you will attend the ceremony! Guests are also welcome to attend.
